

Be not afraid.....

If no one answers your call,
if no listens to you

Just take a deep breath, overlook all relations

Then walk alone, go wherever the path takes you, (Be not afraid) walk alone my friend, walk alone .

If no one talks to you,
O my unlucky friend, if no one speaks to you,
If everyone looks the other way and nobody cares for you,

Then bare your soul and let out what's in your mind,
(Be not afraid) Speak alone my friend, Speak alone

When dark clouds cover the sky, When darkness engulfs the truth,

When the world cowers and bows before fear, days and nights are like some tunnels!

You be the flame, the flame that burns you and expels darkness from the world, whatever the issue, don't be depressed!

(Be not afraid) Burn alone my friend.
