

For all the victims of Nature's ferocity....

I pray, my lord

Help us out !

Our body is submerged in water,
No food, not even a single sprout.

Children are crying and weeping,
every eye drenched in tears,
One horrible moment,
Every soul filled with fear.

No family, no home,
No land, no place,
No tree, no leaf,
Every one shocked: in grief.

Children have become orphans,
Women are widows,
The sunshine has vanished,
Help us God, our heads we bow.

O Ganga ! What did we do wrong?

What is this punishment for?

Our faith in you,

Still stands strong.

So, give us the courage,

To fight this flood,

And don't forget

To bless everyone .
